William E. Roepenack Drowns in Cross Lake; Funeral This Morning

Was to be Senior in Antioch High School; Played In Drum Corps

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. today at St. Peter's church for William E. Roepenack, aged 16, who drowned at 12:30 Monday afternoon in Cross lake.

The boy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Roepenack, of Antioch, sank while swimming with two other boys to a raft on the Wisconsin side of the lake. He apparently suffered cramps and called for help. His companions were unable to reach him before he went under.

The Antioch Rescue squad was

summoned and members found the body 200 feet from shore in 35 feet of water.

William was born on Sept. 8, 1930 in Chicago and had lived in Antioch 15 years. He was a member of the American Legion drum and bugle corps and played the trumpet in the Antioch Township High school jazz band. He would have been a senior in school next fall.

Surviving are the parents, and two brothers, James and Russell, of Antioch. A brother, Jack, died in 1936. Father Flaherty had charge of the funeral services. Burial was in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Village Still Seeks New Night Patrolman After First Appointee Quits

The village is still looking for a man to fill the night patrolman's job. The man selected before, became ill and quit and although there have been a couple of applications since, the fact that the appropriation implies a temporary position caused them to become disinterested. The regular police with the parking meter job on their hands are kept quite busy. They say that people are gradually becoming accustomed to the meters but there are always a few that are neglectful and get a ticket now and then.

No agreement is said to have been made yet as to the amount the village will pay Justice of the Peace E. Elmer Brooks for collecting the parking penalties. He has asked for half of the collections.

An ex-service man, Stanick served two and a half years overseas as a chief petty officer in the U. S. navy. The drug store has been managed by the Alford's since 1943. Since Mr. Alford's death two years ago Mrs. Alford has been carrying on in an excellent manner. She will remain to assist Mr. Stanick.

Mrs. Grice to Hospital
Mrs. L. B. Grice suffered a relapse and was taken to Victory Memorial hospital Sunday for observation and care. Her speech has been impaired by a partial paralysis.

F. F. A. Pair Wins State Championship

The Antioch Township High school Poultry Judging team, Monday won the elimination contest at the University of Illinois and thereby earned the right to represent Illinois at The National Poultry Congress to be held at Waterloo, Iowa in October. The members of the Antioch team are Kennedy Heuer, a member of this year's graduating class; and Gordon Gebhardt, who will be a senior this year.

On June 17th and 18th the ten high teams were selected from a total of 440 high schools. Antioch was among the ten. This week in the elimination, Antioch surpassed the other nine teams by as much as 53 points higher than the next place team.

C. L. Kutil, Vocational Agriculture Instructor, who trained the team will probably accompany the boys to Iowa.

This is the second time Antioch has had a state poultry championship. The other was in 1935.

Salvation Army to Start Camp Meetings Mon. Evening at Camp Lake

Evangelistic services of the old fashioned camp meeting variety are to be conducted nightly at 7:45 commencing Monday, Aug. 4, at the Salvation Army at Camp Lake, Wis.

These meetings are being held in connection with a national Brengle Bible conference, and will feature speakers and musical talent from all parts of the country, coast to coast. They will continue every night during the period of Aug. 4 through 14. The series of meetings will be opened by Commissioner E. I. Pugmire, of New York City, National Commander of the Salvation Army's forces in the United States, who will be supported by Lt. Commissioner Norman Marshall, Territorial commander, and by a 50-voice chorus which will be heard nightly.

The camp grounds are located on county highway SA, six miles northwest of Antioch, and four miles south of highway 50.

Instructors From Afar
The conference will include as instructors—Commissioner Frank Barrett, of London, England; Colonel Holland French, of New York; Brigadier N. Laity, of Oklahoma City; Major Thomas Parkhouse, of California; Major Nina Russell, of New York City; Prof. R. Ludvigson, of Wheaton college, with Brigadier Albert Pepper, of Chicago as institute director. The delegates will include lay people and officers from the central states, and a special delegation of officers from every section of the country, and will offer classes in Bible and doctrinal subjects during the day, with these special public meetings each night, and three times on Sunday.

This institute, convened by General Albert Orsborn, is a memorial to Commissioner Samuel Brengle, outstanding world wide evangelist, writer, and expounder of holiness, and will emphasize the teaching and doctrine of the Holy Spirit, both in the classes, and in the evening meetings. On Aug. 15 the special delegates will convene at the William Booth Training College in Chicago to continue another 10 days in their studies.

Wilmot Fair Contracts for Band and Several Other Entertainments

Raye Block and his orchestra featuring Len Esch and Karen Nelson have been procured for the Kenosha County fair at Wilmot.

The annual event scheduled this year for Aug. 8, 9, and 10, is expected to provide unusual interest. Unlike Illinois fairs the Wisconsin fairs are privileged to have poultry exhibits and these with the dairy cattle should prove interesting.

There will be six acts daily to entertain the people. Rollini, world famous balancing marvel and Harry Froboess, 1928 championship diver who will perform on the top of a 75 ft. pole are among the chief attractions.

FIRING SQUAD DANCE PLANNED FOR AUG. 5

An invitation to the public to attend the American Legion Firing Squad dance Tuesday, August 5, at the Castle, corner Rts. 173 and 45, has been extended.

Music for the dance will be furnished by "Carl Abbs Pepper-uppers." The dance is staged to raise money for buying uniforms and supplies for the squad.

Golden Glo Dairy Gets Modern Soaker Type Bottle Washing Outfit

New Tile Flooring and New Laboratory Will Be Installed

In an attempt to provide the lowest bacterial count milk in Lake county, the Scott Golden Glo Guernsey Dairy Co., has installed a new soaker-type bottle washer.

The machine soaks the bottle 12 minutes in a caustic solution followed by six rinses of hot water, four more rinses in warm water and a final chlorine rinse which produces a zero bacteria count.

The machine handles 480 bottles at a time and discharges them at the rate of 66 a minute. They leave the machine on a conveyor, are automatically filled, capped and hooded, and during that time human hands never touch them.

"We are going to great expense to produce milk with the lowest bacteria count in Lake county," Herbert Horton, manager, said. "The health department permits a 30,000 count, but we expect to lower our count from 4,000 to 2,500 with the help of our producers."

To add to the sanitary condition of the plant new plastic glass tiling is being laid.

A new laboratory is to be added so that there can be local control of milk content. The Dairy and Foods Laboratory has been running the bacterial tests for the company in the past.

When this is added the local dairy will be the best equipped small dairy in the state.

The Golden Glo Guernsey dairy is to be given national publicity in the National Dairy World soon on the strength of the fact that 90 per cent of the employees are former G.I's.

Horton said that he expects to incorporate the company soon and employees will be privileged to own stock.

Round Lake Fight Card Provides Good Program for Saturday Evening

Boxing presented every Saturday night by popular promoter Gene Engel in conjunction with the Round Lake Park Men's club, is gradually taking on a firm hold in enthusiasm, as shown by the increasing number of resort residents turning out for these amateur contests.

A novel treat was in store for the Round Lake fighters last week, when, instead of the usually advertised two five round featured contests, three bouts at that distance were presented, with only one turning out via the kayo route.

Knockouts in the opening bouts were exciting and in the triple-wind-up, colorful "Irish" Tommy Honan, achieved his victory with a solar-plexus punch, for a two round kayo. For boxing skill and endurance, Rick Leland, Gary, middleweight champion, outpunched Norman Malone, and Don Van Alstine, of Coulton's gym, defeated Jim Woodard, in a spine-tingling welterweight contest.

Come Saturday, Aug. 2, capable "Irish" Tommy Honan, featherweight protégé of former world's bantamweight champion, Johnny Coulton, is slated to box Wallace Williams of the Savoy A. C., in one-half of the double-featured five round bouts—Williams, last week scored a terrific two round knockout.

In the companion five round event, rugged George Johnson, "middleweight representative of Coulton's gym, will meet Harry Jones, of Chicago's northside, that is expected to enliven the show with plenty of fireworks. In addition, five three round bouts are scheduled.

Fox Lake Gets New Hope for Theatre as Result of Purchase of Property

Hopes were renewed for a theatre at Fox Lake this week when Louis Olsen sold four lots and additional ground on Rte. 12, north of Grand ave., to Frank J. Chudik of Pistakee Bay who plans to build a theatre if permission from the CPA can be gained.

Chudik, a newcomer to the motion picture business, said he planned to put a couple of G.I's in charge if the project is completed. He will have plenty of space around the theatre for parking.

Stanley Levine, of Chicago, who purchased ground to build a modern theatre, was unable to get CPA permission and is said to be withdrawing from the field.

Thrilling Boat Races Expected Next Sunday at Yacht Club Bohemia

Boats that put up thrilling races at the Mineola hotel last Sunday are expected to compete Sunday, Aug. 3, in one of the season's highlight events at Yacht Club Bohemia.

The "Viking," "Hex," "Tramp," and "Chickie" all are expected to be on hand to provide the speed.

Last Sunday the "Viking" won over the "Panic" in a special race in which the speed was more than 60 miles an hour. The Panic failed in the second heat which had a time of 2:09 for the two laps on a mile and a quarter course.

In the 95 h. p. class Louis Balas "Missed It" won over six entries in times of 3:06½ and 3:09. Ray Sabath and Robert Johnson were second and third.

Fred Stahmer's "Miss Anne" won over Richard Kaiser and Louis Balas in the 103 h. p. race, and Al Horn's "Sudan" won over Patti in the 125 h. p. contests.

Local Women Want to Form Class in Painting

She is a successful portrait painter and has consented to come to Antioch once each week for six weeks if a class of eight or ten is procured. Mrs. Figueira said that anyone who is interested may call her at 268-R-1, or may call Antioch 43.

Physical Fitness Day Observed by 4-H Clubs

The 4-H clubs of Lake county held their annual fitness field day today at Grayslake grade school building.

Four-H club members were given tests by two specialists from the University of Illinois who scored them on various points of physical fitness. A fitness and growth record book will be given to each member through which scores for year-to-year progress will be kept.

Health is one of the four cornerstones of the club.

Complete Plans for County Fair Here Aug. 15-17

Premium List Distributed And Free Acts Are Already Booked

With the premium list in the hands of Lake county farmers and the free attractions already booked, plans are rapidly being completed for the county fair here in Antioch Aug. 15 to 17.

The fair which before the war drew large crowds will call for complete co-operation of the entire county this year in reviving interest to what it once held.

Premiums in stock and domestic science and arts are being given. As in the entire state of Illinois there will be no poultry display this year owing to the danger of the spread of poultry disease.

The cattle will be housed in tents on the grounds east of the tracks and the art displays will be in the Antioch Township High school.

The entertainment will include a sensational bar act with trampoline tricks presented by Nick Cravat, assisted by a young lady; Ruddy and Jean Peterson in a roller skating act which will include a contest for children in the audience; and Dick Drake, comedy musical act, consisting of pantomime satire, and musical numbers on the balalaika.

Community's Population Grows Rapidly as Many Come from City to Live

The Antioch community has nearly 250 new permanent residents this year as the result of persons coming here from Chicago to retire, or persons turning summer homes in to year-round dwellings, Harry J. Krueger, local real estate man said this week.

Cottages for persons wishing to spend their vacations at the lakes are at a premium and have been for the last two months Krueger said, and other real estate men in the community have agreed.

Real estate is still selling, but the bonanza days are over he explained. Prices are still up, but buyers are discriminating.

Antioch merchants are doing good business and the resorts, restaurants, and taverns are having big trade especially on weekends. Cold weather at the start of the season cut down weekend visitors, but the recent warm weather has caused them to flock in.

Who Made The "Power Problem?"

It should be thoroughly understood that whatever electric power problem exists in this country is the direct result of governmental policies which prevented normal development and expansion by the utility industry. In this connection, it is a noteworthy fact that the danger of power shortages is greatest in areas where the government has spent enormous sums on socialized power, such as the Pacific Northwest. In the regions where government has not gone into tax-free, subsidized competition with the regulated, heavily taxed utilities, there is generally an abundance of power, new facilities have been built to take care of present and future increases in demand, and they do not depend on government charity for funds.

There would be an enormous increase in private investment in electric facilities in the threat of government seizure of the industry was removed. But, so long as the danger of completely unfair government competition remains in many areas, investors are naturally wary of risking their money in enterprise whose life may be short. Further, if the utility industry were encouraged to go ahead and build and improve its plants and transmission lines, great new taxable assets would be created for all units of government. That, in this time of crushing taxes, would be a boon to all.

No one can doubt the power industry's spirit of progress. It is now, for example, carrying on a $300,000,000 rural electrification program which will virtually complete the job of bringing power to the farmer in two or three years. But it cannot make its full contribution to the welfare of the United States so long as the political drive to destroy it remains in force.

Fair Return For Railroads

The railroads' petition to the Interstate Commerce Commission for rate increases which will permit them to earn about 6 per cent on their property investment, is solidly supported by past policies of Congress and decisions of the United States courts.

In 1920, Congress passed the Transportation Act, which directed the ICC to fix the level of a "fair return" for the industry. The Commission established this fair return at 6 per cent for two years, then reduced it to 5-1/4 per cent. There it remained until passage of the Emergency Railroad Transportation Act of 1933.

The United States Supreme Court has twice declared, in precedent-making decisions, that 6 per cent is a fair return for a public service corporation. The Federal Power Commission has made similar decisions in the electric utility field.

In the face of all this, the railroads' earnings, even in periods of extremely high traffic, have been only about 3 per cent on their property valuation. And that figure is not reached by arbitrarily inflating the worth of the railroads' properties. The ICC, in June, 1946, tentatively valued the lines at $19,571,000,000. The railroads believe this is ultra-conservative, and think that the industry's worth at the beginning of 1945 was more than $23,000,000,000. Regardless of which figure is accepted, the present and past earning power of the industry has been far below any reasonable return—due to inadequate rates in the face of rising costs.

Solvent, progressive railroads are a "must" to the whole United States economy. Our railroads give the best service in the world, and at the lowest cost. They pay the highest wages and taxes. The whole free enterprise system, for agriculture and industry, depends upon them. They should be given the fair return which they now ask with a minimum of delay.

Our Appetite For Oil

There is considerable misconception concerning the oil situation.

In certain sections of the country, notably the Middle West, supplies of both crude oil and oil products are tight—and are likely to remain so for 12 to 18 months. The reason for that is simple. It is solely because short supplies have made it impossible for the industry to drill enough new wells, to provide the transportation, and to construct all the new facilities needed to handle record demands for oil in all its forms.

Consumption of oil has hit unprecedented levels. Today the American oil industry is producing more than 5,000,000 barrels of crude each day—a rate higher than at the peak of the war effort, and 30 per cent more than in 1941. That is an astonishing performance, in the light of the postwar shortages and scarcities of materials. But even that output is insufficient.

So far as reserves of oil are concerned, the industry is expanding them as rapidly as possible. It is getting more usable products out of each barrel of crude than ever before. It is experimenting to find new sources of oil, such as the underwater salt domes off the Gulf Coast. Concurrently, it is carrying on an enormous development program abroad to make available the untouched oil resources of the Middle East and other regions.

It is forecast that by 1951 American consumption of oil will reach 6,200,000 barrels a day. The industry is preparing to meet that enormous need.

Child Kidnaped Two Years Ago Is Found Alive

Amazing Story Told of How Girl Was Being Trained
For Skating Act.

CHICAGO. — A 5-year-old girl, kidnaped two years ago, was found alive and well in New Orleans with her abductors and returned to her Chicago home. The child was being trained to become a member of a fancy roller skating act with those who abducted her.

The girl is Mary Ann Kubon, who was only three when taken from a boarding house in June, 1945. She had been placed there by her mother, Myrtle.

According to the New Orleans office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the child was found in company of William Graham Fuller, 44, a former convict, his wife, Marie, a foster daughter, Mrs. Selma Taylor, and her husband, Rima.

Abductors Caught.

The five, according to the FBI, were seized as they attempted to hitchhike a ride on a highway eight miles outside New Orleans.

Fuller and the other adults were turned over to Sheriff John J. Grosch of Orleans parish and Mary Ann was placed in St. Vincent de Paul orphanage.

Mary Ann is the daughter of Walter Kubon and his wife, Myrtle. In 1945 the parents separated, and Mrs. Kubon came with the child to Chicago from her home in Harvey. She made the acquaintance of Fuller, who was a professional roller skater, giving exhibitions at various rinks.

On June 17, 1945, a man representing himself as Walter Kubon took the child from the boarding house. The man actually was Fuller, police suspected. Knowing the man was a skater, Walter Storms, chief of detectives, had circulars printed, directing the search toward roller rinks throughout the nation. Subsequently the FBI entered the search.

Traced by Skates Order.

Fuller was traced after he had placed an order with a New York firm for a special pair of skates, designed for a 5-year-old girl.

Fuller, his wife, and the other couple are roller skaters and were training Mary Ann as a feature of their act, according to the report from New Orleans.

Mrs. Kubon, whose husband is a steelworker, has returned to her previous home at Harvey.

The mother wept with happiness at the return of her daughter. She said she had prayed every night for her safe return. She and her husband have three other children, all boys.

In New Orleans Fuller was charged by the FBI with unlawfully fleeing Illinois to avoid prosecution for kidnaping.

Neighbor Watches as Slayer Kills Woman on Doorstep

PHILADELPHIA. — A 26-year-old mother was slain, apparently with a screw driver, at the front doorstep of her North Philadelphia home.

Edward G. Gundaker was looking out a window of his apartment across the street and said he saw a man hack Mrs. Clara Matthews about the face and head and drag her into an alley.

While he telephoned police, the assailant stripped a stocking off the right leg of Mrs. Matthews, drew it deep into the flesh of her throat and knotted it tight. The assailant was gone when police arrived.

A blood stained six-inch screw driver was found at the entrance of the alleyway. The victim's husband, Howard, 30-year-old orchestra player, said his wife carried it in her purse to open their front door when they forgot their key.

Girl, 3, Rescues Drowning Cousin in Kansas Lake

SHAWNEE, KANS. — Three-year-old Vivian Ramsey was acclaimed a heroine after saving her cousin from drowning in nearby Lake Quivira.

Vivian and her cousin, Elsie Louise Mayor, also 3, had wandered to the lake from their home, several hundred yards away. They were not missed until the mothers, Mrs. William Ramsey and Mrs. W. J. B. Mayor, heard screams coming from the lake.

Running to the lake, the mothers found the Mayor girl in the water and Vivian lying on a plank leading to a dock, holding her cousin out of the water by her hair.

Shoulder, Sleeve Patches Being Banished by Army

WASHINGTON. — The army is banishing all but a few of the unit shoulder patches of World War II.

The changes, it said, "are the result of an effort to decrease individual arm or service consciousness and foster an increased ground forces esprit de corps."

The announcement added that sleeve insignia of small non-divisional units—including airborne, armored, amphibian and similar organizations—would disappear, leaving only patches for divisions, corps, armies or army ground forces.

Arrest Reunites Mother And Son, Apart 10 Years

ST. LOUIS. — Creighton Dale Collins, 27, St. Louis truck driver, credited his arrest on a speeding charge in 1943 with providing the link that enabled him to locate his mother, Mrs. J. Frank Draper of Portland, Ore. He had searched for her for 10 years.

When he was arrested for speeding, police found a circular from Portland, asking for his whereabouts. Collins later wrote to Portland authorities. They located his mother.

Lives With 2 Wives Until They Step Out

He Complains to Police Over the Spouses' Infidelity.

RICHMOND, CALIF.—A salmon chopper who lived cheerfully with two wives and their six children complained that his spouses were stepping out on him—and leaving the kiddies home alone.

Richmond police listened in amazement to Robert Carraher, 40, and sent him to the district attorney. The D. A. listened, too, and advised him to see the police.

Juvenile authorities finally agreed to investigate the complicated household.

In a three-room apartment they found Mrs. Margaret Carraher, wife No. 1, and her three children, a girl of 12, a boy of 10 and a baby of 1.

They also found Mrs. Delores Carraher, wife No. 2, and her three youngsters, a daughter, 4, a son, 2, and a baby, 4 months.

Carraher married wife No. 1 at Detroit in 1934. They had two children, but he left in 1937 when he said Margaret reported she had won a divorce.

He met wife No. 2 at Richmond in 1942. They also had two children.

In 1945, Carraher heard wife No. 1 was looking for him. He packed up No. 2 and the kiddies, went to Detroit, faced No. 1, and all five of them came out to Richmond to live. Two new babies later graced the household of one bedroom, living, kitchen and bath.

Last Christmas Carraher lost his machinist's job and went to Monterey, Calif., to chop up salmon for the canneries.

A friend told him, he told police, that Mrs. Carraher No. 1 and Mrs. Carraher No. 2 were "stepping out on him."

He was worried, he said, over the probability that the six children were being left home alone. The slender, balding Carraher was happier after juvenile authorities said they'd see the six kiddies were cared for.

Ohio Bank Robbery Bungled By Three Would-Be Bandits

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO. — Three would-be bandits were held for attempted robbery after bungling the job.

Two of the men strode boldly into the First National bank at nearby New Holland. One of them pulled a gun and barked:

"This is a stickup."

Then the cylinder of the gun fell out and dropped to the floor with a loud thud.

The bank president, George Kirk, and Cashier J. T. Dick began to laugh. The bandits ordered Dick to surrender his wristwatch. The cashier guffawed loudly.

The bungling bandits bolted for the door and fled in a car driven by an accomplice. Thirty minutes later the trio was arrested at London, Ohio. Police identified them as Donald Neff, 17; Carson Rice, 18, and Charles, Maley, 25, all of Springfield, Ohio.

Death of Dog Stirs Campus; Pet Was Used in Experiment

LIBERTY, MO. — Brownie was just a perk-eared mongrel but his death in a biological laboratory through an error brought these results:

A mass demonstration by more than half of the 800 students at William Jewell college, where the little dog had become a campus pet.

The hanging in effigy of a professor.

Brownie's death came after the supply of specimens for the study of mammal tissue and tapeworms in biology class had been exhausted. Dr. Leland Jacob Gier, biology department head, said he had picked up two stray dogs for use in the biological laboratory. Through "a regrettable error" one of them happened to be Brownie.

Bullet Ricochets and Strikes Bandit in Attempted Robbery

SAN FRANCISCO.—An attempted holdup backfired when a robber's bullet ricocheted and hit him instead.

Patrolman Harry Lahey disclosed that a man identified as Charles E. Bamberg, 38, fired at a customer who tried to halt his getaway with $53 from a tavern. The bullet missed the customer, ricocheted from a wall and struck Bamberg in the leg, landing him in Emergency hospital with charges against him of robbery, assault with intent to commit murder and carrying a concealed weapon.

Leaving State by Auto? Then Learn Vehicle Laws to Prevent Accidents

Knowledge of motor vehicle laws in the states he will visit are as important to the motorist in preparing for his vacation as locking his house and garage and conditioning his car. Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, warned today.

Accident records received by the club president reveal that half of the traffic accidents occurring in cities under 50,000 involve out-of-towners. Still more non-residents are arrested for traffic violations not associated with accidents.

A new ordinance passed in Indianapolis, Ind., banning U-turns on all streets illustrates unusual regulations sometimes encountered in local ordinances. The State of Washington goes beyond the fairly uniform law in many states which penalizes hitch-hikers and also penalizes motorists who grant rides to hitch-hikers.

Traffic Signs Confusing
Even when traffic signs in a strange territory are inadequate or confusing to strangers, non-resident violators seldom are granted the defense of ignorance of peculiarities in the local traffic laws, Mr. Hayes emphasized.

Although motoring organizations have made marked progress in obtaining improved uniformity of traffic laws and signs, motorists still cannot rely on knowledge of their traffic laws and signs in their immediate home area to take them safely without inconvenience everywhere in the country, Mr. Hayes stated.

In most territories clarification of local regulations may be obtained by motorists from offices or agencies of state motor vehicle departments, offices of state, county, and municipal police, information bureaus in City Halls and some chamber of commerce headquarters, and offices of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

SHORT STORY

Majolica Vase

By L. T. McFarland

HARRY LANG had come prepared to spend fifty dollars for the vase. He sat nervously watching the auctioneer, the people, and the door and prayed that Marjory Higgins (that horrid spinster who seldom missed an auction, and always outbid him for his treasures) had broken a leg or something so she couldn't appear this time when the Majolica vase was to be put up on the block.

He strained his neck for the hundredth time toward the entrance. He wondered if her knowledge of antiques covered old pottery. Maybe not. Maybe his auction-sparring enemy didn't know a Majolica vase from a beer mug. Yet the very thought of those snapping eyes and that crisp sanguine voice sent his blood pressure soaring.

"What am I bid for this Majolica vase? A rare antique! Rarest thing in this room!" the auctioneer's well-oiled voice boomed forth while his free hand gestured out over wash tubs, kraut shovels, and the toll-worn carpet sweepers.

There it was! Harry looked about cautiously and held his breath for the third beauty of it.

"Who will start the bid?" the auctioneer coaxed.

"Five dollars," Harry called out. The girl was nowhere in sight.

"Thank you, sir, five dollars. Who will make it ten?" Thus the bidding proceeded until thirty was reached.

She pictured her proud exit with the vase safely tucked away.

THE crowd was swaying restlessly. Interest was on the wane. Harry took a plunge. "Forty," he finally said. Now the vase was practically in his lap, but the auctioneer held on. "Forty—forty—is all I am offered—who'll make it fifty?"

"Fifty," called a clear voice near the door.

Suffering cats! It was her voice. The crowd turned en masse to see Marjory Higgins make her way up the aisle to a spot almost directly in front of Harry. She stood there, confidently, already picturing her proud exit with the vase in her possession.

Harry ground his teeth and muttered, "Sixty."

"Seventy-five," the crisp voice came back at once as Miss Higgins tossed a swift challenge back in Harry's direction.

"Eighty," Harry took the challenge, and this time Marjory flushed and seemed embarrassed.

"Eighty," teased the cryer. "Eighty I am offered. Make it eighty-five, Miss?"

The girl nodded. "Eighty-five." Harry was really seeing red.

"Eighty-five it is. Now make it ninety, Mister, make it ninety. Don't let the lady outbid you."

Harry sensed that the crowd to a man was on the lady's side and were inwardly rooting for her, enjoying her sportsmanship—so he raised up and shouted, "Ninety."

Now he had it. The auctioneer scolded and pleaded and begged but Marjory was immovable. She must be pouting. She heard the "Going—going—g—"

THEN it happened. Marjory Higgins whirled about and faced Harry Lang. She was trembling. "You cheap skater!" she shouted. "You penny pincher! It's not the money, but the principle of the thing that burns me up. All this embarrassment over a measly nickel or two. Ninety cents—well, you don't get it for ninety. I bid one dollar. So there! And now that the vase is mine, I'd like nothing better than the privilege of breaking it over your head."

She stepped up to the stand and snatching the vase from the for-ounce speechless auctioneer, threw it with all her strength at Harry Lang's dome. Lucky for Harry he had made his record in football catching forward passes. A moment later it lay neatly tucked away under his arm.

"Touchdown," someone shouted and the crowd surged forward pushing Harry Lang until he was face to face with his assailant.

"Thanks, madam. Thanks very much for the vase—the clerk will be along in a minute to collect your bid," he managed as the crowd pressed up. And in the riot that followed, Harry edged his way out-side.

Magnet Removes Needle From Throat of Girl, 16

PITTSBURGH.—A three-quarter inch magnet suspended by a string down the throat of a 16-year-old girl, painlessly removed a two-inch sewing needle she had swallowed, doctors at University of Pittsburgh medical school reported.

The girl, who was not identified, is a patient at Western State Psychiatric Institute here. She accidentally swallowed the needle.

Medical attaches said surgery was impossible because the girl has diabetes. Doctors contacted Westinghouse Electric corporation scientists who compounded the magnet out of a new metal alloy.

Huge Dope Cache Is Seized at New York

Called One of Biggest Haunts in History of Port.

NEW YORK.—Heroin worth $1,147,500, the largest seizure of narcotics in New York history, was confiscated by federal agents from the French freighter Saint-Tropez.

Agents under Col. Garland Williams, director of the federal bureau of narcotics for the New York area, worked on the case 48 continuous hours.

The find consisted of 459 ounces of pure heroin, valued in the black market at $2,500 an ounce.

An international ring of smugglers was suspected when the wrapping of the heroin was found to be identical with the wrapping of $250,000 of heroin seized two months ago from the motor ship John Ericsson.

The Ericsson since was damaged to an extent of $1,500,000 by fire at its North river pier.

The Saint-Tropez arrived from Marseilles. Action started with a purely routine inspection of seamen leaving the pier.

Lawrence Murray, port patrolman, found in the money belt of Cesar Negro, 28, a French seaman, four packages, each weighing 8½ ounces.

After the seaman's arrest, federal agents were notified and undertook a fine-toothcomb search of the freighter.

In a locker for soiled linen, they unearthed 50 additional packages.

Heroin is never sold pure to addicts, but is adulterated heavily, until an original ounce comes to many times its original dimensions. It is this which gives the narcotic drug its excessive black market value.

Gunmen Get 50 Cents From One, $1,200 From a Guest

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.—Four gunmen paid a house call on Manuel Benitez, former Cuban national police chief, and took $1,200.50 from him and a friend. Benitez, who lost only the 50 cents, said the job was that of "amateurs."

The four bandits abruptly entered the living room where he and his wife were entertaining Jose de Los Heros and forced them at gunpoint to lie face down on the floor. Benitez told local police.

Next, attention turned to Benitez, they trussed their victims ineptly with wire clothes hangers and removed $1,200 from Heros' trousers. But from Benitez they got only one 50 cent piece, all the money he was carrying.

After ransacking the upstairs, he said, they made for the front door with a pasteboard box full of Mrs. Benitez' jewelry. At the door they collided head on with Manuel Gonzalez, who was arriving to join the party.

Gonzalez immediately grappled with the gang, and Benitez, who had freed himself, snatched the jewelry from a bandit's hands. All four escaped, he said.

Discover Food Is Plentiful In Unrationed Ethiopia Shops

ADDIS ABABA, ETHIOPIA.—An abundance of food jams the shops of unrationed Ethiopia.

Butchers display beeves, chickens, lambs, veal, hams; bacon and sausage. Green grocers and fruit markets are so packed with vegetables that they sometimes overflow onto the sidewalks.

A sampling of prices showed that most vegetables—onions, potatoes, cabbages, string beans, peas, cauliflower—sold for about 10 cents (U.S.) a pound, while bananas, peaches and other fruits were slightly higher at about 14 cents a pound.

Beef was quoted at 14 cents a pound, veal at 10 cents. One butcher offered a whole young lamb for $1.60. Butter, a big export item, was 55 cents a pound.

Army Prisoner Is Killed as Break Slips Up in Hawaii

HONOLULU.—A military prisoner was killed and two others and two guards were injured as a sergeant's courage prevented a mass escape by 30 men from the Schofield barracks stockade.

The dead prisoner was identified as Edward Perry of Oahu, shot through the head as guards thwarted the attempted break with tear gas and gunfire. The prisoners overpowered a routine inspecting party.

Lt. Cyril L. Donnelly, Midland Park, N. J., officer of the guard, and Corp. James Walton of Birmingham, Ala., were beaten unconscious by the prisoners.

Tells Horror Of Five Days in Wrecked Auto

Accident Victim Describes Feelings Trapped 150 Feet From Road.

MARTINEZ, CALIF.—A navy veteran, 26 years old, described the horror of being trapped in the wreckage of his automobile less than 150 feet from a busy highway for five days, almost dying from thirst with water only 10 feet away.

The man, Ernest Kenneth Steele, an oil refinery worker of Richmond, Calif., is in critical condition and doctors are undecided whether his right arm, mangled in the crash, will have to be amputated.

He was rescued by two power company linemen stringing wire through Franklin canyon.

Falls Asleep. Steel said his car left the road eight miles west of Martinez when he fell asleep at the wheel while returning from a fishing trip.

The machine veered through a highway fence, traveled about 100 feet across a field and then plunged into a 35-foot gully. Steele was thrown from the seat but, when he regained consciousness the next morning, he found his right arm was mangled and caught between the door and the side of the car as it lay on its side.

He was helpless, and in terrible pain.

"Every hour of every day I yelled," he said. "I didn't have anything to eat or drink except two packages of gum. I ate the last piece just before they found me."

His thirst grew intense, and he was tortured by the sight of water in a small creek bed only 10 feet from him.

Nobody Heard Him.

One morning he heard the hammer of a man fixing the fence through which his car had crashed. And all through the ordeal he heard automobiles passing on the highway—so close. But nobody heard his continual cries.

As Steele grew weaker and felt he could not last much longer he smashed the glass fuel bowl on the carburetor and salvaged a splinter of glass.

On the fender he scratched this message for his wife, Mae, 24: "Don't forget I love you."

He thought of cutting off his arm to free himself, but he was unable to reach his knife with his left hand and the splinter of glass was inadequate.

Doctors said Steele probably would have died of thirst and shock in a few more hours.

Demons Routed 'Hexed' Man Can Enjoy Food Once More

LOUISBURG, N. C.—It looked as if that "old devil" was frightened clear out of Stephen Richardson, 24-year-old Negro who was "hexed" by a witch doctor.

Stephen is back in the kitchen again eating, hoping to fill out his body, which has grown thin from worry over the voodoo spell.

He had feared death from the curse until "treated" by Marsh Babbitt, a professional hypnotist who flew from New York City.

Stephen's tormentor was Adam Alston, 70-year-old "conjurer man" who couldn't remove the hex because he was already dead, slain by one of his "victims."

Babbitt convinced Stephen he was a stronger "witch doctor" than the man who conceived the hex.

Stephen smiled when Babbitt brought him out of a final hypnotic trance with a snap of his fingers.

"I'm hungry," he said getting off the bed.

Babbitt returned to New York City by plane.

He Lost Pajamas as Well as Battle With Tough Intruders

PHILADELPHIA.—Harvey Barton Jr. was making good progress in a battle with two intruders until neighbors, aroused by the noise of the street fight, began turning on lights.

The lights—and a break—enabled the men to escape as Barton beat a hasty retreat back into the house.

Two men who had been insistently ringing the bell grabbed Mrs. Barton as she opened the door about 1:30 a. m. Barton leaped out of bed when his wife screamed, drove the men into the street and was knocking them down as fast as they could get up until the lights came on.

It was then he noticed the drawstring of his pajamas had broken.

Police Smash College Riot; Fight Is About Terrapin

BALTIMORE.—At least 80 police descended on Johns Hopkins university campus to break up a battle royal between cohorts of University of Maryland and Hopkins students.

A Hopkins task force kidnaped a 400-pound bronze terrapin, Maryland sports symbol, from the Maryland campus at College Park, Md. The Maryland students had threatened revenge.

The furore was over a la crosse game in which the unbeaten Hopkins team tangled with Maryland.

Restore Girl's Severed Nose by Plastic Surgery

LOS ANGELES.—Plastic surgery has restored 15-year-old Esther Brooks' nose, sliced off at the base in an automobile accident.

But her doctor said it is still too early to tell if the grafting operation is successful.

The girl's nose was not replaced for four hours after the accident, and was found only after a frantic search by sheriff's deputies. They kept it warm in their hands while they sped to the hospital where the girl was taken.

Dr. G. J. S. Rambo, who performed the operation, said the nose is still "alive" but hesitated to claim success.

Girl Gets Into Jam Between Buildings

Follows Cat While Waiting for Her Mother.

NEWARK, N. J.—Sitting in a beauty parlor waiting for mother to get her hair done is mighty dull for a 4-year-old girl on a fine day.

So when blonde, blue-eyed Cornelia Ann Byron spotted a brown and white kitten through the rear door of the beauty parlor she went out and followed it.

The kitten turned into a narrow space separating the beauty parlor and an adjoining tavern and leading out to the front of both buildings.

The passage was only about eight inches wide, but wide enough for a fascinated 4-year-old to try to wedge through, so she kept right on the kitten's trail.

The space between the buildings narrowed as it approached the street, but little girls following kittens don't think about such things and the first thing Cornelia Ann knew she was stuck. Stuck so tight that she couldn't move ahead or back out. Then she began to cry lustily.

Edward Mulcahy, a bartender at the tavern who was on his way to work, heard her cries. He called a police emergency squad.

First, they soaked Cornelia Ann with oil to make her slippery. But she couldn't move an inch. Then they cut through the cellar of the beauty parlor to try to get her out. No luck.

Finally, the sweating police chopped away some bricks from the corner of the tavern and little Cornelia Ann, her pretty white dress all ripped and dirty, was freed.

"Where am I?" she asked. Then she saw her mother, Mrs. John Byron of Belleville, ran to her and settled down for some real honest-to-goodness, 4-year-old crying. They took her to City hospital to be treated for head and arm bruises.

Nobody noticed what happened to the brown and white kitten.

Boy Burglar Picks Locks With Wire to Steal $1,500

ELGIN, ILL.—A 15-year-old youth who used a wire device to pick door locks and steal $1,500 in seven burglaries during the last year in Elgin was held by Elgin police.

He is Jack L. Glissman, 15, an 8th grade student in Elgin's Abbott junior high school.

His brother, Richard, 25, also was arrested for breaking into a schoolhouse near Geneva.

Jack was seized after he was seen flashing rolls of new dimes. Several dollars worth of dimes had been stolen from an apartment in the building where he lives. He admitted taking the dimes and also confessed six other thefts, police said. In gaining entrance, he used lengths of wire to loosen the bolts on door locks.

Fondness for Her Dog Costs Woman Life in Accident

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Mrs. Nelle Bly Andrews' fondness for her dog cost her her life.

She and her husband were walking with Pesty, a fox terrier, when the dog sat down on a track as a streetcar approached. Both leaped forward to "shoo" the dog to safety. The car struck them, killing Mrs. Andrews, and injuring her husband. Pesty was not hurt.

Falls From 60-Foot Cliff; Is Found 18 Hours Later

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.—Ed Wright, about 30, fell 60 feet from a cliff into a rock quarry and lay there injured for about 18 hours before rescue.

Boys playing near the quarry heard Wright's cries and notified nearby residents, who called police.

Wright was taken to a hospital suffering a broken neck and other injuries.

Sneeze Comes in Time to Save Girl From Surgery

HARRISBURG, PA.—Lucille Burns, age 2, sneezed just in time to save herself from an operation.

Attendants at Harrisburg hospital had placed the child on the operating table and were about to remove a button she had lodged in her nostril.

At the last moment Lucille sneezed and out popped the button.

Built by International Harvester Company

Here at Harvester we are concerned over the fact that a growing number of our products are appearing on the resale market at greatly inflated prices.

As manufacturers, we try to produce at the lowest possible cost. We cannot set the prices at which our products—tractors, motor trucks, farm implements, refrigeration, and industrial power equipment—are sold. We can and do suggest list prices which the great majority of our dealers adopt as their retail prices.

$20,000,000 Price Reduction

Our basic price policy was publicly stated in March, 1947, when we announced price reductions at the rate of approximately $20,000,000 per year on our products. At that time, Fowler McCormick, Chairman of the Board, said: "ANY PRICE IS TOO HIGH IF IT CAN BE REDUCED."

Practically all of our dealers cooperated with this policy and passed on the savings to their customers.

The objective of the price reductions was to make it possible for customers to buy our products, which they need so badly, at lower prices. Naturally, this purpose is defeated when our products are sold by anybody at inflated prices.

IH Production at All-Time Peak

Inflated prices are caused by the difference between supply and demand. To increase supply, we now have the greatest number of employees in history on our payrolls—almost 90,000 in the United States, as against about 60,000 prewar. Large new plants are getting into production in Louisville, Evansville, and Melrose Park. A fourth will soon be in operation in Memphis. The men and women now employed are turning out the greatest quantities of IH products of all kinds that we have ever made. These are also the finest products we have ever made, and recognition of that fact is an important contributing factor to the demand for them.

Distribution to Dealers

But even record-breaking production is not sufficient to give your dealer—and other IH dealers—enough products to meet today's demand. We have tried to make the fairest possible geographical allocation of our products so that every dealer would get a fair share, and we know that dealers, in most cases, have tried earnestly to make the fairest possible distribution to their customers.

But we also know that many of our products—far too many—are being resold at inflated prices. The public criticism and resentment of these resales are of real concern to us, as we know they must be to our dealers, because such reactions endanger the good will of both the dealer and the Company in any community.

Distribution to Customers

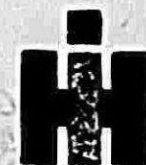

Experience shows that many IH new products are being resold by users who decide they can continue to make out with their old equipment after they have had an inflated offer for their new equipment. To eliminate this, many dealers are taking measures to be sure that equipment purchased is for their customers' own use and is not to be resold.

Nearly all IH dealers, we believe, are now using the basis of PRESENT NEED as their primary guide for the sale of scarce products. The customer whose need is real and urgent is not likely to resell.

What Price Should You Pay?

While it may take a little more time to get delivery, we urge our customers to consider all of the factors mentioned here, before paying more than the list price for any IH product. Any IH dealer or branch can furnish the suggested list price for any IH product.

We know that the overwhelming majority of IH dealers are as much opposed to inflated prices as we are. In the public interest, we have already asked their cooperation—and are now asking the cooperation of customers—in correcting this situation.

1,011 Rent ViolationsSend Couple to Prison

NEW YORK.—Pleading guilty to charges citing 1,011 instances of rent ceiling violations between last March and October, two Harlem real estate men were sentenced to serve six months in prison.

Federal Judge John W. Clancy also fined James Smith, 70, $5,000 and his son, Raymond Smith, 29, $1,000.

Federal Atty. Silvio Molloy asserted that they crowded as many as five persons into rooming house rooms for which they charged $5 to $11.50 a week.

Clerk Pleads Guilty To $780,000 TheftLived Luxuriously and Kept Two Private Yachts.

NEW YORK.—William Arthur Nickel, 44-year-old clerk who lived luxuriously and kept two yachts while he embezzled $780,000 from his employer, pleaded guilty as he went on trial with two of his three co-defendants.

Nickel, who apparently will be chief state's witness in the huge Mergenthaler Linotype company swindle, entered his plea to a 202-count indictment charging grand larceny and forgery.

The 48-year-old former Mergenthaler employee, whose extravagance failed to arouse suspicion until a fellow employee discovered fraudulent entries in his books, was arrested last October in a Florida hotel.

Nickel, who had fled to Detroit, Chicago and Florida when he recognized that his accounts were under scrutiny, talked freely after his arrest and implicated three others in the complicated plot.

Julius Lobel, alias Jimmy Collins, a Broadway figure who has been at liberty under $85,000 bail, and Irving Cohen, 45, known as "Izzy the Eel," are co-defendants in the swindle trial.

A fourth co-defendant, Isidore Rappaport, 55, president of the Ultima Optical Instrument company, was granted a separate trial because he and his firm were named in only 41 out of nearly 500 counts in the indictment.

Rappaport, a war sub-contractor for the linotype firm, was said by Nickel to have master-minded the plot in which fraudulent checks made out supposedly in payment of Mergenthaler bills escaped company detection. Rappaport, however, was said to have been ousted in favor of Collins later in the plot.

Commonplace Pump Termed Most Widely Used Machine

PHILADELPHIA.—With only 29 per cent of the nation's farms equipped with the most universally used machine in the country—the commonplace pump—the remaining 71 per cent are rapidly becoming an important market for this mechanism which outnumbers the automobile, telephone and refrigerator combined.

Terming the pump the "unsung Cinderella of the machine family," Richard H. DeMott, vice president of SKF Industries, Inc., in an industrial report, said that of the country's 5,800,000 farms, only 1,679,000 are equipped with pumps for running water.

He estimated that the national "pump population" now tops 100 million, constituting one of the most important uses for ball and roller bearings. He compared the pump total with 34,000,000 automobiles, 19,792,000 refrigerators and 27,800,000 telephones reported in use at the end of 1946, pointing out that each motor vehicle uses at least one form of pump.

Body of Harvard Athlete Is Found Floating in Lagoon

BOSTON.—The body of Sylvester Gardiner, 22-year-old Harvard university athlete and World War II veteran, was found floating in the Charles river basin lagoon.

Positive identification was made by his father, former Gov. William T. Gardiner of Maine.

Medical Examiner William J. Brickley said a brown overcoat and shoe skates found on the body indicated that the young athlete had been accidentally drowned while skating at night.

Caesarian Operation Saves Baby After Mother Dies

PORTLAND, ORE.—A healthy girl was delivered by Caesarian operation three minutes after death of the mother, Mrs. Mildred Wickstrand, 31, from pneumonia in a hospital here.

The infant, born a month premature and weighing 6 pounds, 11 ounces, was placed in an incubator and was thriving, the hospital said.

Youth Stabs to Death Girl Friend of Granddad

NEW YORK.—James Quinn, 21, was held for fatally stabbing his 74-year-old grandfather's pajama-clad girl friend.

The victim was Margaret Dowling, 42, a telephone worker. Quinn's wife said her husband stabbed Miss Dowling after he accused her of stealing his money from a bureau drawer.

First Cookbook

The oldest known cookbook was published in Spanish in 1390. Many of the early cookbooks had appendices dealing with the evils of over-eating and ways to overcome them.

History of Paper

Paper was made by hand until 1798. In that year Louis Robert, a Frenchman, invented the endless wire screen which is today the heart of the paper making machine. It is on the bronze wire that the art of paper making depends. Robert sold his idea to Sealy Fourdrinier and his brother Henry, wealthy Englishmen, who went bankrupt developing it but today these great machines used wherever paper is made bear their name—the Fourdrinier paper machine.

TB Vaccine

BCG, a fairly successful vaccine against tuberculosis, is made of living enfeebled tuberculosis germs. For this reason many physicians will not use it. Drs. B. J. Olson, Karl Habel and Willard R. Piggett of National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md., come out with a vaccine which is made from dead tuberculosis germs. Thus far the new vaccine has been tried only on guinea pigs, but the results are, if anything, a considerable improvement over those of BCG.

Deer Antlers

The number of points on a deer's antlers do not necessarily correspond with the number of years the animal has lived. A survey reveals that 50 per cent of all yearling bucks have two points on each side.

Workstock Numbers

The 1946 crop of mule colts was the smallest since 1932 and 23 per cent less than the 1945 crop, according to department of agriculture figures. Number of colts under one year old on January 1, 1947, was estimated at 50,000 head compared with 65,000 head a year earlier and 87,000 head on the same date in 1945. This decline in mule colts numbers began in 1941. The number of horse colts under one year of age January 1 was 15 per cent smaller than a year earlier.

Railway Unions

Around 80 or 85 per cent of all railway workers are members of labor organizations. There are more than 20 unions or brotherhoods in the railway industry. Members of these unions negotiate with the railroads through chosen representatives. Through many years of negotiations, the train service brotherhoods and railway management have developed an extensive, and, to the layman, a rather complicated system of rules and regulations governing wage schedules and working conditions.
